

Silver boars head stirrup cup / table lighter - London - 1968 by Asprey and Co.

Asprey & Co Ltd, London

Sold

REF: SS/HTTT

Height: 12.5 cm (4.9")

Width: 9.8 cm (3.9")

Depth: 6.5 cm (2.6")

Weight: 608 g

Description

Silver boars head stirrup cup table lighter by Asprey and Co., London 1968, of typical form and realistically modelled boars head, with gilded interior. Engraved JE BRISE TOUT (Translated to I BREAK EVERYTHING)

This exquisite Silver Boar's Head Stirrup Cup Table Lighter is a standout piece by renowned silversmith Asprey & Co, created in London in 1968. Designed as a lifelike boar's head, it serves as both a stirrup cup and an elegant table lighter, showcasing Asprey's dedication to intricate detail and superb craftsmanship. The piece features rich texture and realism, capturing the rugged charm of the boar and the luxurious quality associated with Asprey's work.

Ideal for collectors, hunting enthusiasts, and those with a passion for unique vintage silverware, this sterling silver stirrup cup is not only functional but also a conversation piece with historical charm. Whether displayed on a bar or mantel, it adds a touch of sophistication and a glimpse into the artistry of 20th-century British silversmithing.