Antique Silver & Guilloché Enamel Oval Box - Circa Early 20th Century (c. 1910-1920)

A beautifully crafted antique oval box featuring vibrant cobalt blue guilloché enamel over a finely engine-turned ground. The rich translucent enamel reveals the intricate wave pattern beneath, framed by delicate silver mounts with engraved detailing.

The lid is inset with a charming floral needlework panel beneath a protective cover, adding warmth and romantic character to the refined silver and enamel exterior. The underside displays concentric engine-turning, showcasing the high level of craftsmanship typical of early 20th-century European silverwork. Hallmarks are present (as shown), confirming its silver content and period authenticity.

Features:

- Solid silver with detailed engraved borders
- Deep blue guilloché enamel finish
- Floral needlework panel inset to lid
- Hinged oval form
- Fully hallmarked

Condition:

Very good antique condition consistent with age. Minor surface wear and light marks commensurate with over a century of careful use. Enamel remains vibrant and intact. There are a couple of chips to the enamel

An elegant collector's piece, perfect as a trinket box, pill box, or decorative accent - a refined example of early 20th-century craftsmanship that brings both history and beauty to any collection.
