Description

A wonderful and whimsical set of 4 Continental Silver Figures. Each figure is sitting on a little barrel and each is engaged in a different activity – one sits reading a book and brandishing a spoon, one plays a violin with a pot on his head. One plays the cymbals while wearing a funnel as a hat and one holds out a tankard and a drumstick. Each figure sits on a base supported by four frog shaped feet and inset with red and blue coloured stones.

These figures are in good condition and show pseudo marks.
