

Solid Silver Sugar Tongs - Edinburgh - 1827 by Adam Elder (Kings Pattern)

£60

REF:

Height: 14.6 cm (5.7")

Width: 1.1 cm (0.4")

Weight: 53 g

Description

Step back in time with these beautifully crafted solid silver sugar tongs by renowned silversmith Adam Elder, made in Edinburgh in 1827. Featuring the timeless Kings Pattern, these tongs are a testament to early 19th-century craftsmanship and elegance. Perfect for collectors of antique silverware, these sugar tongs combine functionality with historic appeal, adding a touch of sophistication to any tea or coffee setting. Enhance your collection with a piece of Edinburgh's silversmithing heritage from 1827. Ideal for gifting, display, or daily use in refined settings.